Comments from our President – Robert White

Seventy-one USA Dance members and their guests arrived at Advent Presbyterian Church's Life Center for our December Holiday Dance celebration. Our decorating committee performed their usual creative magic with beautiful, festive center pieces on the tables. Our music included many of the season's classics mixed in with non-holiday songs.

Everyone was treated to excellent showcases by the owners of Dream Ballroom Academy, Ivan Gloss and Alisa Hryn. Their first performance was a Bolero to Neal Hall Band of Renown by Maintain to Pacific Mamba Dance. A bolero is a slow dance of Spanish origin with a distinctive rhythm of precise choreography. The second performance was a cappella in the photos, which were taken by Sylvia Rose, Tim and Nastassja Hrun, and me.

Local dance studio instructors and students and independent instructors are always welcome at our events. This gives our members and attendees the valuable opportunity to learn what is offered by these professionals. The major focus of USA Dance is to improve and expand the quantity and quality of dance in the Memphis area and instruction offered by these professionals is a key to achieving this goal.
