"Final Thoughts"

From our Past - President & Poet Laureate
Robert White

We gathered again at Advent to start our dancing year,
and entered carrying our dancing gear.
It was a joyful January night,
to begin a new year of dancing in fading winter's light.
The joy together on the floor is on the rise,
and it always shows in our happy eyes.
Our movement to the music is always a thrill,
as we are almost never on the dance floor still.
We enjoy our time with ole friends we all know,
and make new ones and memories in the afterglow.
Time together is too short, but always good and kind,
a joyful pleasure of the mind.
