Just A Few Words...

The new Chapter 2012 Board welcomes each of you to an exciting new year of dance!

We are working hard and plan to continue all the great activities plus more that have made our 2nd Saturday of the month Chapter dances the place to be!

We hope each of you weathered the recent winter storm. With nearly 60 attendees, the January dance was a magnificent event to kick-off dance year 2024.

A sincere thank you to all who came out!

Entertainment & Notes

"Ringin In The New Year" with inspiration!

Entertainment provided by:

The Dance Studio of Tupelo & The Tupelo Ballroom Dance Club

First Break: Studio owner Rubye Del Harden and Senior Instructor Andrew Davis performed an elegant Bolero to "The Look of Love."

Second Break: Pro Instructors Cameron Stevens and Gage Wood enchanted with their Viennese Waltz to "If You Love Her."

Thank you for sharing your love of dance with us!

"Final Thoughts" from our poetic Past-President Mr. Robert White...

To start a new year of dancing with all the trees bare,
we gathered at Advent in the cold evening air.
The parking lot filled of cars from all around town,
littered deep with fallen leaves of brown.
Even though the winter wind outside did blow
across the dance floor the music did flow
And in the joy together our souls did bask and methinks no more could we ask
A special thrill as we moved to the tempo's rhyme,
but sadness when the evening ran out of time.
