"Final Thoughts"

From our Past - President & Poet Laureate

Robert White

Again, we gathered at Advent on this special day,
with our dance shoes in hand to play.
As we feel the Spring evening ending,
the heat tells us that Summer is soon descending.
And dancers moved on to the floor all aglow,
with tempos both fast and slow.
The movement of our feet on the wood,
always makes us feel so good.

With old and new friends to meet,
our bodies move to the tempo's beat.
The joy of our time together you see,
is the place we most want to be.

At times like this to enjoy along the way,
with such a group of friends we always long to stay.
We all have a special place for dance in our heart,
and from friends such as these it is always hard to part.
