Just A Few Words…

Spring is here and it's time to dance!

Reflecting on our May dance, I am appreciative of the vibrancy of our dance community! The spring season is known as a time of flourishing, cheerfulness and joy. I saw all of this as I browsed through the May dance photo memories. We are so thankful for the faithful and new attendees who come and share the love of dance. It was a delightful "Spring Soiree!"

A special thank you to John & Kathy Linn and their ballroom youth group "Kathy's Kids" who provided our entertainment this month. The future of ballroom dance will be bright with this new generation of talented and enthusiastic dancers.

Thanks to all of you for coming out!

Save the Date! See you at the "Viva La Dance Fiesta" – Saturday, June 14th, 2025

"Final Thoughts"

From our Past - President & Poet Laureate
Robert White

With the Mother's Day Holiday not far away,
we gathered at Advent for our special day.
With a May sky so clear and blue,
it seemed that the music was calling you.
As the tempo across the floor did stream,
we moved to patterns like a dream.
With Foxtrot and Waltz tempos slow,
the dance floor was all aglow.
With Tango and Mambo, not on holiday,
along with Swing and Rumba we did play.
We departed looking forward to Memorial Day,
and thankful for our time together in May.
