~ IN MEMORIAM ~

Camilla Errington Wilson

The dance community recently lost one of our all-stars, Camilla Wilson. Born in Houston, Texas, Camilla lived a life brimming with intellect and joyful energy. She was a dedicated educator for more than three decades— as a teacher of first grade, kindergarten, upper-grade math, and her favorite - the gifted program.

Camilla was inspired by the arts, in all forms - symphonies, Broadway shows, gallery walks, painting classes, and ballroom dancing. When she wasn't dancing, she travelled extensively, sharing adventures with friends and family. She is survived by her daughter, Amy W. Young; her son-in-law, Stacy Allen Young; and her precious granddaughter, Victoria Taylor Young—her kindred spirit.

Camilla was a long-time supporter of our USA Dance Chapter as an active member for over 13 years. In 2021, she sponsored a memorial event for her dance partner and instructor, Charles Cox. She also made a generous donation to support attendance projects. Camilla was as lovely and graceful on the dance floor as in life – and she will certainly be missed!
